

Excico winner of the PM'up...

Tuesday, 10 November 2009 00:00

Excico winner of the PM'up contest for its strong development potential. Ile de France region launched in 2009 the "P" program, an invitation to SME's to apply for the most promising development strategies for the next 3 years. Excico h selected by the "PM'up" jury as a winner for its strong growth potential for job creation, innovation and international development and for taking into account corporate citizenship and sustainable development.

